Former Gull Mitchell Boggs earns win against Red Sox on national television

NEWPORT, R.I. – Former Newport Gulls pitcher Mitchell Boggs earned his second career victory for the St. Louis Cardinals in a 9-3 win over the defending World Series-champion Boston Red Sox on Saturday.

Boggs (2-0) – making his third start and fourth overall appearance for St. Louis – had the longest outing of his young career on national television, as the game was broadcast on Fox Sports. Boggs pitched 5.1 innings, the longest outing of his young career. He allowed three runs, all earned, on five hits and two walks. His lone strikeout of the outing came against Manny Ramirez, as Boggs got the Boston slugger looking in the bottom of the sixth inning.

Boggs pitched for Newport during the 2004 season. He is the second former Gull to reach the big leagues, joining Chris Iannetta, who is in his second full season with the Colorado Rockies. Iannetta played for Newport in 2003.
